Oregon Trail Parents,

We know you are anxious to hear what school will look like when we reopen in the fall.

Under the Oregon Department of Education's Ready Schools, Safe Learners guidance, we are developing an Operational Blueprint to reopen our schools. We are consulting with staff, school board, parents, public health, and other agencies. Next week you will receive a survey to help inform our planning.

While the guidance and regulations that come down from the governor's office, the Department of Education, and the Oregon Health Authority are in almost constant flux, we will remain agile in responding - and we will keep you in the loop throughout the planning process.

Remember: Oregon Trail School District ranks 10th in Oregon for academic achievement and student progress, and we intend to remain innovative and agile to ensure that our students continue to thrive.

Operational Blueprint for Reentry

The Oregon Department of Education's Ready Schools, Safe Learners guidance requires an Operational Blueprint for Reentry that addresses the following areas:
